

Third Age Learning Burlington Registration Form

I wish to enroll in
Third Age Learning, Burlington

Series 6: On and Off the Beaten Track

Series Registration Fee: $40.00

A limited number of Parking Passes are available @ $16.00 ea.

NB: You can also register on our Website:
www.3alb.org

Please complete one form per person

Name: _____

Address: _____

City: _____

Postal Code: _____

Telephone: _____

Email Address: _____

Registration with Parking Pass: $56.00

Registration without Parking Pass: $40.00

Registration fees are non-refundable

Make cheque payable to:
Third Age Learning, Burlington

Mail to:
PO Box 91551, 3023 New St.
Burlington, Ontario L7R 4L6
Please — No post-dated cheques

- Confirmation of registration will be issued when payment is processed.
- If the series is over-subscribed, any additional cheques will be returned.

Note: 3ALB respects the privacy of members' names and addresses.

On and Off the Beaten Track

This series looks at some of the more unusual places on the map and asks a few pertinent questions. What's there? Why is it significant? What does it tell us about different cultures, different ways of seeing, and the ways in which place influences people?

This is a travel series with a difference—less a travelogue than an in-depth look at the history and significance of some special places and peoples.

Thursday Afternoons 1:30—3:30, September 18 — November 6, 2014
Burlington Art Centre, 1333 Lakeshore Rd., Burlington

September 18

The Bruce Trail Conservancy: Celebrating 50 years of Conservation

Beth Gilhespy, Executive Director, The Bruce Trail Conservancy

September 25

Medecins sans Frontieres/Doctors without Borders: Current Challenges—A front-line Nurse's experience

Nancy Graham RN, BScN, Volunteer with Medecines Sans Frontieres (Doctors Without Borders)

October 2

My Passage to India

Brian Wrixon, Poet, Writer, Publisher, Business Consultant

October 9

Designing water-smart cities, buildings and landscapes

Aziza Chaouni, Assistant Professor, Faculty of Architecture, University of Toronto, Founding Principal, Aziza Chaouni Projects and Bureau E.A.S.T

October 16

Spain's Alhambra Palace: If These Walls Could Talk.

Dr. Monica Leoni, Chair, Spanish and Latin American Studies, University of Waterloo

October 23

Peru: Journey Through the Fascinating Land of the Inca

Barbara Boles-Davis, Heart-Links - past member of the Board of Directors, Peru Projects and Work Awareness Trip Committee, Volunteer (MMI) Medical Ministry International - multiple projects

October 30

Exploring in the Modern Age

Adam Shoalts, Explorer; Author; PhD Candidate, Department of History, McMaster University

November 6

An Insider's Guide to Kobe

Momo Kano Podolsky, Graduate Program Administrator and Researcher, Munk School of Global Affairs, University of Toronto

For more information on individual presentation topics and the biographies of our speakers, visit our website: www.3alb.org

Did You Know:

- Third Age Learning stimulates cognitive function - the best strategy for healthy, happy aging
- Third Age Learning exposes members to new ideas, and new perspectives on old ideas.
- Third Age Learning attracts really good speakers—experts with fascinating things to say about their fields of expertise
- Third Age Learning encourages questions and discussion among members.
- Third Age Learning creates and maintains strong social networks.
- Third Age Learning provides opportunities for sharing interests and activities that guard against loneliness and isolation
- Third Age Learning creates an environment where the knowledge and experience of a lifetime can be put to good use, benefiting both participants and the community.

Third Age Learning, Burlington welcomes new volunteers!

We have a wide range of volunteer opportunities available.

For more information
Contact us at info@3alb.org

Learning is for Life!

3ALB is:

- Inclusive and welcoming to all seniors and retirees.
- Affordable - $40 for 8, 2-hour presentations (lecture, break, Q&A session).
- Stimulating and enjoyable. We present outstanding speakers who are experts in their fields.
- Member-driven — Members are surveyed on a regular basis and consulted about topics for future series.
- Easily accessible by car or public transit.

3ALB is also:

- Incorporated as a non-profit organization
- Independent and autonomous
- 100% organized and run by volunteers who are seniors
- Closely modeled on Third Age Learning, Guelph and Third Age Learning Kitchener-Waterloo which have, for more than twenty years, consistently delivered sold-out lecture series to their communities
- Committed to forming mutually beneficial community partnerships

Third Age Learning, Burlington
PO Box 91551, Burlington ON L7R 4L6

www.3alb.org

905-639-2248

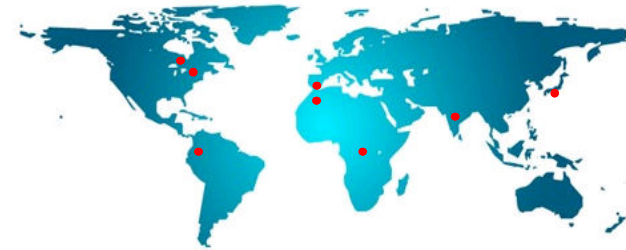

3 THIRD
AL AGE
LEARNING

BURLINGTON

www.3alb.org 905-639-2248

Third Age Learning, Burlington is a not-for-profit organization dedicated to providing series of stimulating, informative, and affordable lectures for the 55+ community

Series 6: On and Off the Beaten Track

Thursday Afternoons, 1:30 — 3:30 pm
September 18 — Nov 6, 2014

Burlington Art Centre
1333 Lakeshore Rd., Burlington

